The Lovely Banana

Bananas are popular all over the world. What a wonderful fruit the bananas! Its three colours tell you how ripe it is. Green means go, as in "go and find another banana". Yellow means "eat me". Brown means "eat me but don't bother chewing before you swallow". The only thing that could make a banana more user-friendly is if you could eat the peel. Plus, a banana is neat to eat. When you bite into it, you don't have to worry about juice all over yourself and your neighbours (like oranges or grapefruit, for example). And it's a silent food - you can chew it as long as you like without driving your neighbours crazy with crunching sounds (like apples or carrots, for example). Finally, it's easy to cut - you don't need a knife. You can slice it with a fork or a spoon, if you like. You're never too young or too old to eat bananas. Babies eat mashed bananas before their teeth grow in. Great-great-grandparents eat mashed bananas after their teeth fall out. The banana is various. You can fry it, bake it, mash it, or eat it raw. You can slice it and put it on your breakfast cereal. At lunchtime you can have a raw banana as a snack, or make a peanut butter and banana sandwich, or eat a bag of dried bananas. You can add a banana to your ice cream for dessert and call it a banana split. On weekends you can order a banana milkshake at your local restaurant. Bananas give us lots of vitamins A and C.
